Nationality language are not a barrier
if you want to join the Thai Songkran Festival.

How old you are doesn't matter
if you want to join the Children's Day.

Gender is not an obstacle
if you want to join in the women's right march.

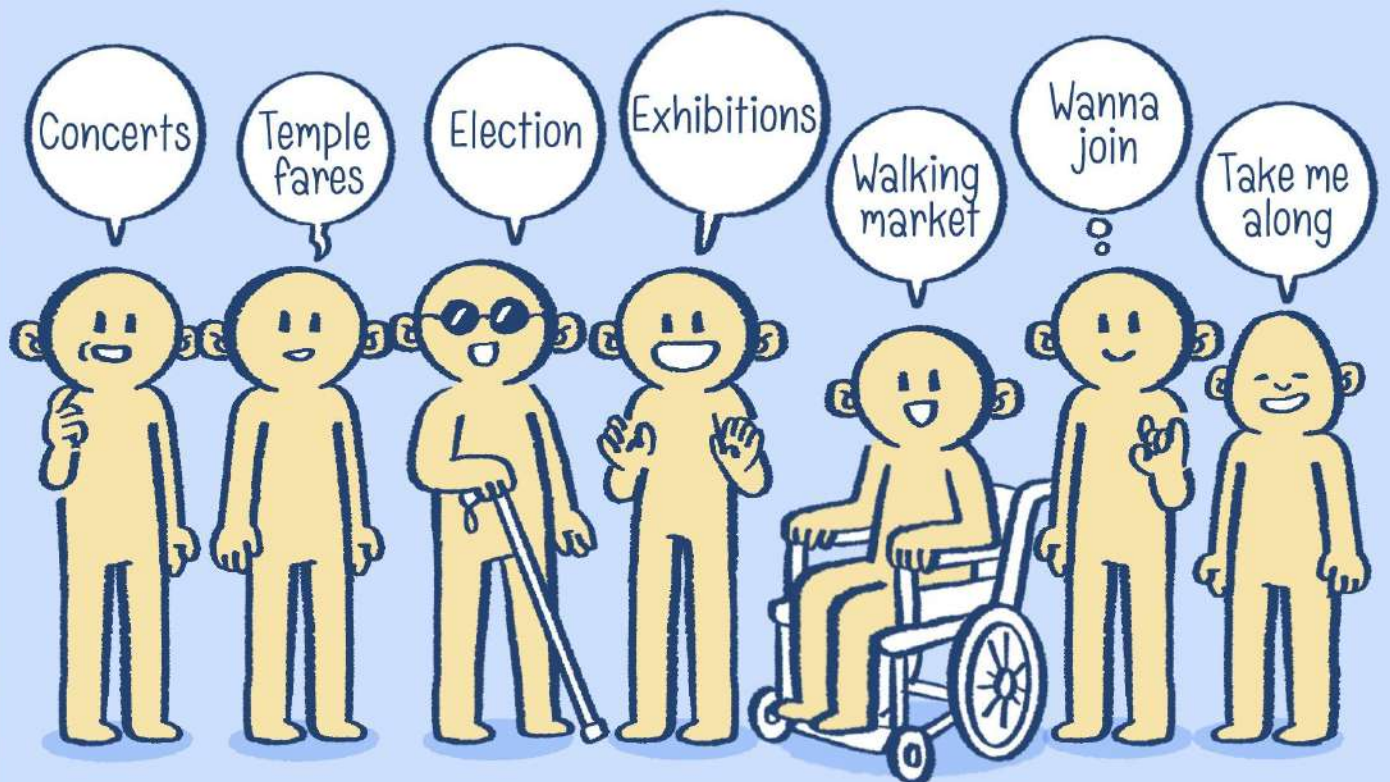

But many activities,
if a disabled wants to join, all obstacles will be there.

We are thinking of a day when we can join all events.

Obstacles
can be managed,
then we can go
together.

People with disability are also a part of society.
If society provides them friendly environment and access,
They will be able to participate
in activities without burdening others,
as a citizen as well as other citizens.
